Jennifer Williams is the senior content specialist for UL's Fire Safety Research Institute (FSRI). She supports the FSRI team and partners to amplify reach and engage with key stakeholders to increase firefighter knowledge and reduce injuries and deaths in the fire service and the communities they serve.

She is an 11-year veteran of the fire service, with most of her service at the Lewes Fire Department in Lewes, Delaware. She received her A.A.S. in Fire Science: Arson Investigation from Montgomery College in Maryland and is currently working toward her B.S. in marketing at the University of Maryland University College. Before joining FSRI, Williams worked as the public relations specialist for the Maryland Fire and Rescue Institute of the University of Maryland and has worked on numerous safety initiatives over the years.
